Becoming a qualified international teacher is an exciting and life-changing career move.

As English is one of the world’s most widely spoken languages, there is a high demand for English teachers. A Certificate IV qualification in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) will develop and extend your understanding of this field and equip you with the skills required to teach in a range of environments.

The Certificate IV in TESOL course is the qualification of choice for anyone wishing to:
- Teach English around the world
- Teach English to international students in Australia
- Add ‘English as a Foreign Language’ to their teaching portfolio

Course Dates:
Please see IIBT website www.iibt.wa.edu.au for course dates and more information

Entry Requirements:
All applicants will need to demonstrate acceptable levels of both written and spoken English.
Applicants are required to:

- Be a native speaker of English or;
- Have an IELTS score of 6.5 in Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening or equivalent.
- Have a minimum year 12 or equivalent, including language-rich subjects.
- Have met the minimum requirements of the pre-course interview.

Course Structure

The successful completion of Certificate IV in TESOL requires all five core units as well as the minimum requirement of 6 hours of supervised and individually assessed teaching practice.

Pathways

On completion of Certificate IV in TESOL graduates wishing to teach overseas should check with individual institutions for qualifications requirements.

Graduates of this course together with a recognised undergraduate degree or equivalent will meet the minimum specialisation requirements for teaching English to speakers of other languages as required by the National English Language Teaching Accreditation Scheme (NEAS). For further information refer to the NEAS website.

Graduates wishing to seek employment as a TESOL teacher may require a postgraduate qualification in education or teaching in some settings.
